

March 10, 1955

John J. Henley

Funeral services for John J. Henley 51, of Aberdeen, took place Monday morning at Sacred Heart Catholic church in that city, with the Rt. Rev. Msgr. P. T. Monaghan officiating. Burial was in the Groton cemetery with the Fr. E. J. Coyne conducting the graveside service.

Pall bearers were Sam Pulfrey, Jim Pavek, Harry Andrews and Ade Johnson of Claremont, and Harold Schneider and William Raymond of Aberdeen.

Mr. Henley died at 4:35 p. m., Friday in St. Luke's hospital, after a lingering illness. He had been hospitalized since Jan. 14,

Mr. Henley was born Oct. 25, 1903, at Claremont, and farmed in that vicinity and at Newark before going to Aberdeen to live with his mother.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. John Henley, Sr., and two brothers, Howard of Groton and Percy of Claremont. His father preceded him in death.